

I've been contacted by one of my financial institutions to review the information regarding the proposed regulatory changes regarding investments.

After reviewing the information, my preference is to not have to divulge a vast majority of my financial information to any investment individual/institution.

I currently have investments with at least 5 institutions/individuals and do so for a number of reasons, one of which is to maintain some degree of confidentiality.

Thank you.

Gordon Meyer
Spruce Grove, Alberta